JULIUS BRAUN

Private detective in New York City.

Self appointed representative of the Mills family.

Is an Hungarian; reputation not of the best.

Came into case four years ago and on re-investigation this year by statements that Mrs. Hall knew of the relationship between her husband and Mrs. Mills for some time before the murders. He is in part responsible for Hamborszky's story.

Has encouraged statements that Mrs. Hall had Mr. Hall followed by detectives before the murders.
